

By Mike Peters in the Dayton Daily News

'Today's televised home game is brought to you by those same wonderful people who couldn't bring you tax reform, welfare improvements or national health care . . .'